

Event announcement: Diversity Summit 2020

PERCENT OF U.S. LAWYERS BY RACE:

85%	3%	5%	5%	2%
WHITE	ASIAN	BLACK	HISPANIC	NATIVE AMERICAN OR MULTIRACIAL

DIVERSITY SUMMIT
WHY ISN'T THE LEGAL PROFESSION MORE DIVERSE YET?

TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2020

The Bar Association of San Francisco
301 Battery St, San Francisco, CA 94111

PRESENTED BY

BerkeleyLaw
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

THE BAR ASSOCIATION OF
SAN FRANCISCO

WHEN: Tuesday, January 21, 2020

LOCATION: 301 Battery Street

Click here to register!

1:00 – Keynote Speaker

Chief Justice of California Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye

2:00 – Current state of the profession

Executive Director Yolanda Jackson (BASF) and Donna Hershkowiz (State Bar of California) will analyze recent data on the profession's diversity and pipeline programs.

3:00 – Evaluating pipeline programs

Executive Director Chris Punongbayan (ChangeLawyers) and Director of Programs for Academic and Bar Success Sara Berman (AccessLex) will analyze issues across the legal education continuum from admission to licensure, and make recommendations to increase diverse law school matriculants, graduates, and professionals.

4:00 – Federal judicial clerk diversity

Judge Jeremy Fogel (Executive Director, Berkeley Judicial Institute) will discuss his ongoing study of diversity rates among federal judicial clerks and his view on the hiring process.

Co-sponsored by the Bar Association of San Francisco, California ChangeLawyers, and the California Constitution Center
