

Event announcement: SCOCA Historical Society book launch

The California Supreme Court Historical Society is hosting an event to celebrate the publication of Constitutional Governance and Judicial Power: The History of the California Supreme Court.

The event is Tuesday 15 November, 5:00 to 7:30 p.m. in the Milton Marks Auditorium at 455 Golden Gate Avenue in San Francisco.

5:00 - 6:00 panel discussion with Chief Justice Cantil-Sakauye and former Chief Justice George

6:00 - 7:30 reception with drinks and snacks

Click here to register!

CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

You're Invited!

5:00pm—7:30pm @ Milton Marks Auditorium
455 Golden Gate Ave., San Francisco, California 94102

*In the Ronald M. George State Office Complex (adjacent to the Supreme Court at 350 McAllister St.)
Event Schedule:*

5:00 – 6:00: Panel Discussion with Chief Justice Cantil-Sakauye and former Chief Justice George
6:00 – 7:30: Reception (Complimentary hors d'oeuvres, wine, beer and non-alcoholic beverages)

CLICK HERE to register online today!

Please join CSCHS along with our current and past Chief Justices to celebrate and review our newly published book, and to honor a recently departed former Chief.

Tani Cantil-Sakauye
January 2011-Present

Ronald M. George
May 1996–January 2011

IN MEMORY OF

Chief Justice
Malcolm M. Lucas
February 1987–April 1996

April 19, 1927—September 28, 2016

“This far-reaching and scholarly text weaves together many of the key social, cultural, economic and political themes of the first 160 years of California. It reveals how, during each era, the justices and the court evolved, reacted, and contributed to the development of law and society. There is much to learn in each chapter for all who are interested in history, governance and the rule of law.”

—Tani Cantil-Sakauye, Chief Justice of the State of California