Governor Brown Nominates Joshua Groban to SCOCA Seat

The Recorder reports that (after a head-fake to the Court of Appeal) in a surprise announcement Governor Brown has nominated the man in charge of searching for someone to fill Justice Werdegar's empty seat to himself be that replacement: judicial appointments adviser Joshua Groban. Accordingly, our "days since Justice Werdegar's retirement" countup clock has stopped at eighteen months.

